

Householder | Performance by artist Tamar Nissim (Israel)

Thursday September 6th, 2018

20:15 - 20:30

The pioneering role of many women in building the national home in Eretz Israel was to fight against dirt, filth, disease, and waste. The installation is based on texts from training pamphlets published during the British Mandate period for the "wise housewife".

